

WITH UNVEILED FACES – ENGLISH TRANSLATION

TRACK 1

A new beginning, this is a new day
The wind of change is filling up my heart!
A new beginning, this is a new day
God's Holy Spirit's setting me apart. X2

Take my heart, make it new, Jesus
Take my heart, make it new, Lord!
Make it all burn for You, just for you alone;
Help me change, You and me, perfectly as one!

A new beginning, this is a new day,
The wind of change blows here!
A new beginning, this is a new day
God's Holy Spirit is near!

TRACK 2

Your word has entered my hard heart
And made my burdens feather light -
It's like I've found a treasure hoard!

Since your word's been in my heart
And I can gaze into your eyes,
The load's been lifted by my Lord.

Your word has entered my hard heart
And made my burdens feather light
It's like I've found a treasure hoard!

Since your word's been in my heart
And I can gaze into your eyes.

I gaze at You my God,
My hands stretch out to You,
With hope and joy You fill my heart.
Your Spirit fills an empty space
This treasure floods my soul,
A brand new life can start!

You are the Treasure,
You are the Life,
You're the Light in the darkness,
You're there in the quietness,
You're there in the noise,
You're there in the good things,
You're there if there's trouble.
You are the Treasure,

You are the Treasure.....

TRACK 3

I am safely in Your hands,
The finest refuge there can be;
I enjoy Your goodness and
It makes me happy, glad and free.
I can praise the work You've done
Because You're always there with me
And even in my saddest times
My safety's guaranteed.

None can snatch my heart away
Your safeguard is maintain'd secure
And even on my darkest days
You keep me safe and sure.
You garrison my ev'ry thought
And help me see my future goal;
Battles are already fought
For You have won my soul!

Chorus:

To guard the town
Without Your aid
Is guarding it in vain.
Nothing's worth anything -
Only shame and pain.
People ask

Where are you?
Doubtful of tomorrow;
Without Your aid
There's no hope –
Only pain and sorrow.

Quiet passage:

But You give enough to the one You love
Providing him solid protection
By night and by day there is power from above
Powerful loving redemption.
You plan out his days with a loving hand
And support his ev'ry endeavour
You help in battle to make a stand
Upholding him altogether.

TRACK 4

Holy fire from Heaven
Comes down when you obey,
Dry hearts spring with water
When you follow in His way.
To obey Him is far better than is sacrifice
To obey Him is far better than is sacrifice x2

I beg you to give me strength,
Give me Heavenly strength
So that I will follow in Your heavenly way. X4

I will go Your way
Because I trust in You x2

Because I trust Your way
Because I trust the Father's way.

I beg You to give me strength
Give me Heavenly strength
So that I will follow in Your heavenly way. X4

From I Samuel 15:22

TRACK 5

I am with you crossing deep waters;
It won't burn you, braving the fire!
I am with my sons and my daughters
I am your Rescuer!

Don't be afraid, I've called you by my name.
Because I've saved you I'll never go away.
Because I've saved you, you needn't fear the flames,
Just do as I say..

Don't fear! Don't fear! Don't fear! Don't fear!
I am your Rescuer! Never be afraid!
I am your Rescuer! Never be afraid!
I am your Rescuer! Never be afraid!
I am your Rescuer! Don't be afraid!

Don't fear! Don't fear! Don't fear! Don't fear!
Don't fear! Don't fear! Don't fear! You are mine!

TRACK 6

I'm gazing at You Lord...
Who are you? Hidden from my view?
You're standing right by me
And calling my name too.

I'm running towards you
Arms open, yes, I understand.
Your life-blood, shed freely
Is poured out from Your bleeding hands!

My heart is singing out,
I just want to dance and shout!
All I have I want to give.
You deserve it all.

You took ev'ry ugly sin
Poured your love and goodness in.

I'm a different person now
And I am free in You.

I'm gazing at You Lord...
Who are you? Hidden from my view?
You're standing right by me
And calling my name too.

I'm running towards you
Arms open, yes, I understand.
Your life-blood, shed freely
Is poured out from Your bleeding hands!

*Now it's clear that sin is ugly
Help me not to follow darkness;
Let my heart be only holy
Precious Jesus*

*Let my walk be ever faithful,
Walking ever close to You, Lord;
Mould my heart to be more grateful
For your grace, Lord!*

Supplementary text:
*Now I'm running quickly to you
Arms wide open just to show you
Everything I have is given,
Child of Heaven!*

*Lungs are bursting just to tell You
That my heart will say I love You
Now I understand the secret
I can't keep it*

TRACK 7
Jesus, every power is Yours, on Earth and in high Heaven
Jesus, sets His people free, a freedom freely given!

For in Jesus' name chains are torn in two
Captives are set free this means me and you -
Given freedom,
We're welcomed home and given perfect peace eternal
Freedom!

Glory to the Saviour, glory to the Saviour, glory to the Saviour on high!

TRACK 8
Jesus You are the true Life
(The One) Who found me in the dust
And broke the chains of my sin
And taught my hard heart how to tru-ust.

Jesus You are the bright Light
(Who guides) me all of the way
And gives me strength, holds me tight
With His strong truth makes my night day..

I love You, adore You
I honour and worship
You are the Lord of my Life!

TRACK 9
I was born possessing nothing
Empty hands and empty pockets
I will leave this life with nothing
Nothing in my purse or wallet.
Don't get fond of earthly treasures -
Clothes get ragged, cars just rusting!
*Adj*ust yourself to Heaven's measure
God's investments you can trust in.
Yes!

Friends and houses can't go with me
Bank amounts of no account there
Listen! 'You can't take it with you'*
Any size of stocks or bank shares
Count for nothing up in Heaven.

But I can collect some treasure
Building Jesus' heavenly Kingdom
Saving people for His pleasure.

Build up heavenly treasure
Use His heavenly measure
Save up for His pleasure
Invest in Jesus' venture.

Set your heart on loving
Generously giving,
Joyously forgiving
Prayerfully living.

TRACK 10

It delights the Lord our Saviour when the cross achieves its greatest goal
And it happens when His grace saves a soul and a soul and a soul and another soul!

There's no answer without You, You are the Lord and only in Your power
I've decided to obey and to follow hour by hour, by hour, by hour!

*Jesus my heart is brave and strong
Though I'm a lamb amongst the wolves
If I to God belong
How can I lose the fight?*

What delights me is to know Your word and to hear Your inner voice
Just to hear Your loving words, "Faithful ser-vant, come, rejoice with me rejoice!"

*Jesus my heart is brave and strong
Though I'm a lamb amongst the wolves
If I to God belong
How can I lose the fight?*

*Jesus my heart is bold and strong
Though I'm a lamb amongst the wolves
If I to God belong, He will make me strong, what a vict'ry song,
So how can I lose the fight?*

TRACK 11

You are the universe
The Earth and the skies are Yours
You are the last and You're the first!
Guide me on Heaven's way,
Lighten the path like day,
You are the Friend close by my side. X2

You are the Life, You are the Light,
Lord of the day and Lord of the night,
You are the Friend Who walks by my side
You are the perfect Heavenly Guide. X2

You are the Perfect Guide!
You are the Perfect Guide!
You are the Perfect Heavenly Guide! X2

TRACK 12 translated by Péter Juhos, revised by Mike Wood

You are a tender God
Merciful with love
Near to me, be near to me!

You are healing / teaching me
Lift me up to be
Near to Your Spirit, Lord!

*You are my desire
My heart is open wide
Set my heart on fire
By Your word, Holy Lord!*

TRACK 13 Translated by Károly Lamp, revised by Mike Wood

With unveiled faces, open to Your gaze
We are beholding the beauty of Your glory.
Transform us, change us, let your likeness blaze

From everlasting glory to glory.

*Spirit of God, please change my heart,
Refine my mind, a whole new start;
Spirit of God, please change my soul,
Transform my being, make all of me whole.*

Just as the clay in the hand of the potter
We're being moulded in Your holy presence;
As the gold in the furnace getting hotter
Refine me into a holy repentance.
